

Chris Conte

General Manager, Systems Integration North America & Asia
Electrosonic, Inc

Chris Conte joined Electrosonic in 2001 as General Manager of the Western Regional business based in Burbank California. Chris was instrumental in the substantial growth and restructuring of Electrosonic and in 2008 he was named General Manager for North America and Asia. Chris is responsible for the Audiovisual Systems Integration Business including Sales, Design and Production.

Chris has more than 25 years of experience in entertainment technology. He has worked for creative design and production companies as well as technology development and production companies since 1987. He has considerable experience and expertise in construction management, business development and client relations as well as an educational background in electronics and project management for large-scale projects. Chris also serves as a project technology consultant for a variety of clients and organizations.