

Luis Berrios

Design Specialist

NASA/ KSC/ Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex

Luis is a Design Specialist for NASA's Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex, and has successfully participated in the creative direction, design, planning, and production of numerous exhibits and highly immersive three dimensional environments for visitor's centers, museums, corporate environments and themed brand experiences.

As a NASA Design Specialist, he is responsible for providing NASA oversight as a Contract Management Technical Representative, assigned to help guide the creative direction, programmatic content and messaging of story driven interpretive exhibits and immersive experiences, to effectively communicate the NASA story and inspire the international and diverse audience of the Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex, to support the rich heritage, present day programs and exciting future of Humankind's greatest adventure, the daring exploration of space.

He is a team member of the NASA KSC External Relations Directorate, Public Services Division.